NEW HAMPSHIRE WINS NEW ENGLAND INTER-COLLEGIATE CROSS-COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE

Has Little Trouble in Place Whole Team of Seven Men in First Eighteen to Finish

"NIGHT" AND LEATH AHEAD

Whole Team Shows Remarkable Speed—Maine and Williams Tied for Second Place—Brown of Williams Fails to Show Speed Formerly Accredited Him

As was expected, New Hampshire's harriers had little trouble in walking off with the N. E. I. C. C. meet held last Saturday over the Franklin Park course at Boston. New Hampshire scored 30 points, and her nearest competitors were Maine and Williams, tied at 79 each. It is interesting to note that the Blue and White would have been victorious even if "Night" and Leath had been absent. In that case the score would have been N. H. 52, Maine and Williams 71 each. This fact certainly shows that the team is not a "one man" affair.

"NIGHT" TAKES LEAD

The day was ideal, a bright sun and cool, crisp air. The ground was hard and the course clearly marked. At the crack of the gun, Nightingale took the lead, and all the Blue and White stuck close to him. At the half-way mark "Night" was still leading, with Leath of N. H., McMahon of M. I. T. and Brown of Williams close at his heels. These four men were in the van throughout the race, alternately setting the pace. However, at the start of the last part of the race Nightingale and Leath began to pull away, and coming up over Nursery Hill, "Night" was in the lead closely followed by "Cy." In the last sprint, "Cy" was left behind and came in about fifty yards behind "Night," and he in turn was approximately the same distance ahead of the Tech and Williams men. Billingham, who finished sixth had a hard fight to beat out Lyons of M. A. C., but finished a few yards to the good. Graves and Thompson came in tenth and eleventh, and Fitch and Weston were seventeenth and eighteenth respectively.

FINE SHOWING

The fact that the entire team finished in the first eighteen is noteworthy, as there were in all fifty-nine runners who finished the race. It is also noticeable that M. I. T. was outpointed decisively, even though the Massachusetts institution was third in the big intercollegiate run three weeks ago. Taken all in all, it would be no idle boast to say that our cross country team could give any other team the stiffest kind of opposition.

Much credit should be given to Coach Cleveland for the fine showing that the team made. Coach Cleveland has developed the team under the most difficult circumstances and his earnest work is meeting with its reward.

FIRST GAME SINCE 1911

Brown Eleven Which Defeated Dartmouth Last Saturday May Be Handed a Surprise—Coach Cowell Confident

Next Saturday, the Blue and White eleven go after their last game and intend to fight their hardest to defeat the Brown aggregation. Brown this year has not had a very good record, but their opponents have been strong, and they have a formidable team. Defeats at the hands of Syracuse, Colgate, Yale and Harvard are not any disgrace, as all these colleges have strong teams. Last week they were successful in defeating the hard fighting Dartmouth eleven. This victory does not show any surprising strength for the Providence team, as they were outplayed from start to finish. Dartmouth gained 17 first downs to Brown's 4 and continually ripped up the Brown line. Brown's score came on a blocked kick and when they kicked the goal, it gave them the decision by a lone point.

TEAMS WELL MATCHED

Norwich is the only team that has met both Brown and New Hampshire and the comparative scores show no advantage for either team. Coach Cowell is confident that his men will surprise the Brown team and will not give in without a desperate fight. New Hampshire's heavy veteran line is counted upon to withstand Brown's hardest onslaughts. Throughout the schedule, the Blue and White line has continually stopped all attacks, and almost always our rival's scores came as results of passes. In the Mass. Aggies game it was a pass that gave the visitors their touchdown, and also in the Maine game.

ALL MEN O. K.

New Hampshire will have their full strength against Brown, as no men have been reported deficient in studies and there were no serious injuries. Earl Farmer, who has been on the bench since that Vermont game will

MAINE WINS STATE COLLEGE TITLE FROM NEW HAMPSHIRE

Is Victorious Over Blue and White In Hard Fought Game

DECISION RESERVED UNTIL YESTERDAY

Ruling in Regard to "Onside" Play by New Hampshire in Last Few Seconds of Game Decides State College Championship—Connor, McKenney, Gadbois and Bell Play Slashing Game for New Hampshire—Ginsberg and Beverley Star for Maine.

An onside play, pulled by New Hampshire in a whirlwind fashion in the last few seconds of play against University of Maine on the College Oval last Saturday resulted in a "reserved decision" being rendered by the officials. New Hampshire had the ball on Maine's 40-yard line and but a few seconds remained to play. Reardon, who had just been sent in as quarterback substitute for Butler, called for an "onside play." Reardon dropped back behind "Dutch" Connor and the latter received the ball and kicked. Down the field raced the Blue and White quarter and down the field rolled the ball. Over the goal it rolled. Not a Maine man touched the ball but the Blue and White's fleet quarter was in on top of the ball, over the goal line before the crowd of 3,500 spectators had realized what had happened. Time ended as the ball was in the air and the game was over after the completion of the play.

REFEREE RULES BOTH WAYS

Referee Ingalls ruled the play both a touch back and a touch down and finally after several minutes of delay reserved his decision. This meant that a ruling must be made as to the legality of the play and the final result of the game cannot be definitely sult of the game was not definitely announced until the Central Board of football officials gave its decision yesterday.

Yesterday the rules committee decided that under strict interpretation of the rules Maine should be declared the winner. They ruled that an "onside kick" must be classed as a punt and not as a "free kick," which fact makes the ball dead when it crosses the goal line. Part of the committee, however, state that the spirit of the rule for an "onside kick" has not been clearly covered in the rule book and that the ruling in this case must be according to existing rules. Maine is therefore declared the winner, seven to three.

Coach Cowell wired Maine late yesterday as follows: "Consensus of opinion of members of the rules com-

Several coaches of New England colleges, who were on the side lines were practically unanimous in the opinion that the play was a touch-

MANNERS OR MANNERISMS?

Manners—good or bad—have in modern social life far greater significance than many people seem ever to realize. An eminent sociologist has even stated that "the length of time it requires for food to pass from the lips to the stomach is a measure of civilization." If this statement is true it requires little stretching of the imagination to place some members of this institution back in good standing at some suitable period in the Dark Ages.

It is said that
"True politeness is to do and say
The kindest things in the kindest way."

But down at the Commons a new interpretation of etiquette seems to be assuming increasing popularity—"Get all you can and can all you get." A few examples should serve to illustrate the truth of this maxim.

The first is the act—performed three times daily for seven days of the week—which bears close resemblance to the famous sword swallowing feat, except that it is done, not with a sword, but with a knife or fork. One does not mind this occasionally, for the sight of such a display of splendid audacity and courage on the part of the man who repeatedly takes his life in his hands, is thrilling. But it soon gets monotonous.

Not to be overlooked is the interesting soup devouring scene which though usually short is quite spectacular. The "boarding house reach" or the "army grab" is another act very excellently developed at the Commons.

Perhaps the most obvious bit of comedy is seen in the succession of heads bobbing up and down as each mouthful of food is received. Of course the consuming of a glass of water or milk in about three gulps, or gorging a sizable piece of bread in a couple of mouthfuls is too common to deserve much comment. Resting one's elbow on the table and using the forearm in a sort of windmill or hay pitching way is quite convenient also.

However exaggerated or ridiculous these acts may seem it should be remembered that they are constantly being performed day after day. It is always interesting to watch people eat. Some people in eating are not only interesting—they are amusing and often pathetic. The new Commons building is a valuable asset, but it is not only a place in which to eat, it should be a place in which one eats properly or if necessary it should be a place in which to learn how to eat. For it is not simply a place where one may go and wolf down food in the most barbaric style. It ought to be an incentive to the cultivation of good manners. It is understood that all men who come to college are not cultivated and polished but it is presupposed that the average college man has the inherent qualities of a gentleman.

Rookies enter a training camp and leave it—trained soldiers. The true college is like a training camp. It should be able to receive unpolished men and to turn them out cultivated gentlemen. But if any college is to do this, it is obviously necessary that men be had who at least evince the desire to be considered as gentlemen.

Can it be possible that there are men oblivious to the fact that daily they are under observation? Day after day men with poor table manners are being observed, and their actions are the subject of much comment.

The manners of a man in most cases reveal to the observing person many things. They reveal his breeding and the character of his home life. They reveal his personal character, for if bad, they show him to be either thoughtless, egoistic, or ignorant.

It is a serious thing for a man to be a member of a college yet unable or unwilling to conduct himself properly in the company of his fellow students. It is a handicap, which must be adjusted if success in life is to be possible.

Nobody would be justified in saying that the majority of college students show few signs of culture, but it is true that with a sufficient number, the cultivation of the art of good manners has been sadly neglected.

By your table manners you show yourself to be a gentleman or the opposite of a gentleman. After you enter the dining hall of the Commons you are under observation.

Is not this worth considering?

ENTHUSIASTIC FOOTBALL RALLY HELD IN "GYM."

The third football rally of the season was held in the "Gym," Friday evening, November 14. An enthusiastic crowd was present and cheers were given for the college, the football teams, and the individual members of the teams. The track team was also cheered.

The program of the evening was something unusual. The first speaker was Dr. H. L. Slobin, head of the mathematics department. Professor Slobin introduced himself to the student body in a unique way, leading the crowd in several energetic cheers for the coach and for the team.

The Glee Club Quartet then amused the crowd with several selections while Mr. A. B. Brownell was preparing some magic tricks which he later displayed.

Coach Cowell, the next speaker, assured the students that the team was in the best of condition in every way. He also described the work which had been done to advertise the game. The whole current of the coach's talk was one of confidence in the ability of the team to "deliver the goods."

probably be seen in action once more. His knee and ankle are in good condition and he is anxious to make good after his long layoff. The probable lineup in the backfield will be: Butler, quarter, Farmer and McKenney, halfbacks and Connor fullback.

FARMER BACK

Brown evidently respects the Blue and White team, as they sent up three scouts to look over the N. H. eleven. After the exhibition last Saturday, they should have even more respect for New Hampshire certainly displayed a fine brand of football against the Maine crowd. This is the first time since 1911 that Brown and N. H. have clashed on the gridiron, and that year Brown triumphed by a 56-0 score. A large body of N. H. royal rooters intend to make the trip to Providence to support the team. To be sure the cost is somewhat high, but surely this team is good enough to command support and all should try to go to Rhode Island to cheer along the Blue and White. On to Brown!

BOOK AND SCROLL.

The regular meeting of the Book and Scroll was held at Dr. Richards' home Sunday evening. Miss Agnes Ryan of Durham, a poetess, gave an interesting talk on modern poetry. Refreshments of hot chocolate and cookies were served.

President Hetzel gave an address before the State Horticultural Society at its meeting in Milford, November 6. Other faculty members who participated in this conference were Prof. J. H. Gourley and Prof. W. H. Wolff.

FACULTY WIN FAST 100-Yd. RELAY RACE

Coach Leads Off Matched with "Batch"—Varsity Second Whips Freshmen 18-0—Fitting Close for Armistice Program

Immediately following Convocation last Tuesday afternoon, the student body and faculty members witnessed an interesting programme on the athletic field.

The spectators crowded the grandstand and made ready for the starting event, which was a relay race between representatives of the Freshman, Sophomore and Senior classes.

The freshmen led all the way, followed by the sophomores, until the last stretch, when O'Leary and Melville in thrilling sprints brought the seniors into second place. The lineup of the representatives follows:

FACULTY ALWAYS LEAD

That the faculty are "there," was proven decisively in the second relay race, this time between the faculty and members of the football squad. The faculty, with one exception, were in the lead all the time, their man coming in on the last stretch ahead of the "grid-ironist." The line-up of the participants follows:

Faculty: Cowell, Perley, Col. Snow, Depew. Football: Bachelder, Waterman, Bell, Sawyer.

LONG PASSES TRIM 1923

By the time the last number on the program was ready to be launched, a large number of the onlookers had departed on account of a drizzling rain which had set in. In spite of the condition of this fact, however a football game was staged between the second varsity team and the freshmen. The field was a typical mud hole; but nevertheless both teams played a good game. The freshmen were outclassed, however, and lost the game to the second varsity, 18-0.

The winning team was able to pile up the score by two touchdowns which Rowell made on long passes, and by Lundholm's making another touchdown on catching a short forward.

The athletic events completed a splendid celebration program arranged for the observance of "Armistice Day."

CLASS MEETINGS.

1920

The Senior class held a meeting Thursday afternoon, Nov. 13, at the Zoology Lecture Room, "T." Hall. The meeting was informal owing to the fact that only twenty members were present. It was voted to levy a tax of ten cents upon each member of the class to help defray the expenses of finishing the "Gym" floor. A man from each fraternity, a woman from each society and a man and woman commuter were chosen to collect class data necessary for the 1921 Granite.

The Junior class held a meeting Thursday evening, Nov. 13, at the Zoology Lecture Room, "T." Hall. It was voted by the class to assess each member a certain amount to help defray the expense of finishing the "Gym" floor. It was also voted that class dues for the year should be $1.50, payable the first term. The meeting closed after a short talk about the work necessary for the editing of the Granite.

Y. P. O. MEETING.

At the regular meeting of the New Hampshire Young People's Organization at the vestry Sunday evening. Dr. Stearns, general secretary of the Congregational churches of this state, spoke of his work in the Inter-Church Survey which is now being carried on throughout the state. Dr. Stearns said, "Life is incomplete without religion. There are enough resources in this state to provide religion for all. Hereafter, these resources will be divided among the churches in the state to enable everyone in the state to be reached by religion."

Rev. Stearns then spoke of the meaning of the Christian religion to a boy who had been born in the slums of Chicago, whose life had been transformed by the influence of Christ. This description which was that of his own life was very vivid.

Special music was furnished by a quartette composed of Messrs. Wigin, Bennett, Eastman and Ayer.

SECOND INFORMAL.

The second informal of last week was held in the Gym Saturday, November 15. A large number were present, many of whom were from out of town. The chaperones were, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Slobin, Mrs. Marcia N. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cleveland.

Contrary to the custom of past years the Freshman girls were not allowed in the Freshman picture this year. A new ruling stated that the girls were not in anyway to enter the contest. However when the cries "twenty-five out" were shouted the Freshman girls left their classes to see what the excitement was about.

A sudden change in the rules made it possible for the girls to go to Dover provided they would have their pictures taken separately. Despite the heavy storm the girls gathered hurriedly at the station and left on the 10.36 train for Dover.

In Dover they went to the Burgess studio and had their pictures taken. Undaunted by wet feet and empty stomachs the girls had a very happy and interesting time. They returned to Durham on the afternoon train in time for their three o'clock Physical Culture classes.

The group pictures of the girls of the 1923 class are now on sale at each of the dormitories.

At a meeting of the Girls' Glee Club last Thursday Mildred Bangs, '23, was elected assistant manager. It was decided at the meeting that the regular rehearsals of the club should be held every Wednesday from 7.15 to 8.15.

STATE POTATO CROP HAS SUFFERED FROM BLIGHT.

Over $1,500,000 worth of potatoes have been lost in the state of New Hampshire this year, it is estimated by the College Extension Service, through the failure on the part of farmers to use $300,000 worth of Bordeaux mixture. Reports from the county agents to Dr. C. R. Butler, plant pathologist at the Experiment Station, indicate that at least 30 per cent. of the potato crop has been destroyed by rot from late blight. The blight has been particularly bad this season because of the wet weather, and in many places has destroyed as much as 75 per cent. of the crop.

Absolute immunity from late blight may be secured at an expenditure per year of $14.50 worth of chemicals per acre, according to the results of an experiment just completed by Dr. Butler in conjunction with the Rockingham County Farm Bureau at James Monahan's farm in East Kingston. Three acres there were divided into several sections, some of which were sprayed with bordeaux mixture, others with pyrox and others with bordeaux mixture paste, while one was left unsprayed. The check plot sustained a loss of 24 per cent. from late blight, while the others indicated the clear superiority of bordeaux mixture. By using a stronger solution of copper sulphate than is customary, 8 lbs. to 4 lbs. of lime and 50 gallons of water, it was found possible to obtain entire prevention of the blight, when applications were made every two weeks. It was found to be unnecessary to spray every week; but on the other hand, applications every three weeks were not often enough to secure complete immunity. Arsenate of soda in two applications gave complete control of the potato bugs.

Previous to the spread of the late blight the New Hampshire potato crop had been estimated at 2,600,000 bushels. The estimate of a 30 per cent. loss is a conservative one; but even this would mean a sacrifice to late blight of 780,000 bushels from the 20,370 acres, which it is figured were planted to potatoes in the state this year.

DR. F. M. SEERLY WILL TALK TO STUDENTS ON DEC. 2.

Dr. F. M. Seerley, noted lecturer on Sex Education will be at New Hampshire State College Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 2 and 3.

He comes highly recommended by the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. and has for the past month been speaking on Social Hygiene to the men of all the New England colleges. President Hetzel, Dean Groves, Col. Snow, Coach Cowell and Woody Howe all heartily endorse Dr. Seerley.

A lecture will be given to men only Tuesday night, Dec. 2, at 7.30 p. m. in the gym. Fraternities will probably hold their meetings a little later than usual that night so that every man in college may be permitted to attend Dr. Seerley's lecture.

WARNINGS

Official warnings, which are issued at mid-term to students whose work is unsatisfactory to instructors, came out with a vengeance last Saturday when more than 400 students received the small brown envelope from the registrar's office.

This remarkable "issue" of warnings represents the greatest number ever sent out and is indeed alarming when one considers the meaning of the figures. More than 50 per cent. of the student body are doing unsatisfactory work.

What does this mean? Is social life running too high? Are athletics outweighing studies in importance? Are members of the faculty and students doing their best work?

These questions are indeed startling. They may be misleading but all suggest possible explanation for this all-too-evident condition. The proof of explanation rests with the students.

FOREIGN SERVICE CLUB.

The next regular meeting of the Foreign Service Club will be held in the Aggie Club Room, Morrill Hall, on Monday, November 24th, at 8 p. m. The speakers are Professor Quimby, formerly of the Fifth Division Artillery, F. Ordway, '20, of the air service, and Lieut. Col. T. K. Spencer. The latter was with the 3rd Division during its historic check of the Germans at the Marne bridge-heads on July 15th, 16th, and 17th. Certainly every overseas man should make a special effort to hear these men.

COLLEGE HONORS VETERAN SONS

Returned Soldiers Talk to Students at Chapel

IMPRESSIVE CELEBRATION

Signing of Armistice Fittingly Observed—"Doc" Bell Makes Stirring Address—Joyce Kilmer's "Rouge Bouquet" is Read

The Gymnasium was filled to capacity last Tuesday afternoon at a special Armistice Day Convocation, when New Hampshire College paid honor in a most fitting and impressive manner to those sons, both living and dead, alumni and returned students, who offered their services for the preservation of Democracy in the World War. The gathering was graced by the presence of many visitors who occupied seats in the balcony, and many ex-service men who were in uniform.

CITES WAR RECORD

Prof. Richard Whoriskey, who presided, described the scene of a year ago when news was received in Durham of the signing of the Armistice, and told how the students, townspeople, and the soldiers, who were here training at that time, celebrated the occasion in the "Gym"

"When the Armistice was signed last November, we had in the S. A. T. C. nine hundred and fifty men," said the speaker. "Prior to this, we had sent into service six hundred and ninety men, most of whom went over seas. Eighteen out of this number died in France either from wounds or disease.

Professor Whoriskey introduced several of our students who had seen service "over there." All responded by telling of their experiences and by paying tribute to their fallen comrades.

Capt. H. B. Smith, who was a member of the First Machine Gun Co., 18th Regiment, First Division, and in the company that had the honor of taking the first German prisoner, was the first speaker. He told the audience many interesting incidents concerning his life as a "dough-boy."

"Frank Booma, ex-'20 man," was the subject of the second speaker, Lieut. Leslie Lynde. Lieut. Lynde spoke of his visit to Booma's grave in France, and of his feelings when he saw, on the mound of earth, beneath which lay the remains of this former New Hampshire man, one little American and one French flag, and above them the plain white cross. In an effort to show how courageous a fellow Booma was, Lynde read a letter which "Dad" had sent to his mother a few days before he was killed, in which he declared that he would never send his men to a place where, he, himself would fear to go.

How the marines were organized, and what they have done since their organization in 1840, was interestingly narrated by a member of the freshman class, Lieut. Earl Farmer.

DESCRIBES AIR SERVICE

Fred Ordway of the 27th Pursuit Squadron, who was the next to speak, had the good fortune of being in the squadron with Eddie Richenbacker, the American ace of aces. He was also a friend of Lieut. Frank Luke, another famous flyer, whose career as a pilot lasted but fifteen days. He told of the events subsequent to the death of this man who was brutally murdered behind the enemy lines.

The mood of the audience, which was one of sadness, caused by the hearing of this story, was changed to one of humor when Kegan Sarkissian took the floor and told some of the humorous events which occurred during the time that he was in the military service. Sarkissian, who came to New Hampshire from Armenia, after serving for a period of seven years in the Turkish, German, and, finally, the British armies, thanked the college authorities and the students for the many courtesies which they had extended him since coming here.

"DOC" BELL STIRS AUDIENCE

The last gun was fired by Lieut. Ernest Bell who was a member of the famous Rainbow division. "Doc," in an eloquent and stirring fashion, made one of the best speeches that has ever been given before an audience in the "Gym."

"I'm going to be congenial," said he, "I'm going to agree with everything that has been said this afternoon about the different divisions that went 'over there.' I'm going to let the matter rest by saying that everyone, both on this side of the Atlantic and on the other, did his best for the cause. But, it would not be proper, if we were to close these exercises without saying a few words about those who are not able to be with us today."

"Doc" then described an incident which he saw in France, wherein a number of his comrades were buried alive in a dug-out by the bursting of a shell near-by.

Moved by the horror of this scene, Joyce Kilmer, one of "Doc's" closest friends, described the affair in a poem, "Rouge Bouquet." Lieut. Bell told the audience that the poem was very dear to him as he was with Kilmer when the latter was shot.

The poem follows:

Rouge Bouquet

In a wood they call the Rouge Bouquet
There is a new made grave today,
Built by never a spade nor pick
Yet covered with earth ten meters thick.

There lie many fighting men,
Dead in their youthful prime,
Never to laugh nor love again
Nor taste the summer time.

For death came flying through the air
And stopped his flight at the dug-out stair,
Touched his prey and left them there,
Clay to clay.

He hid their bodies stealthily
In the soil of the land they fought to free
And fled away.

Now over the grave abrupt and clear
Three volleys ring;
And perhaps their brave young spirits hear

The bugle sing:
"Go to sleep!
Go to sleep!
Slumber well where the shell
Screamed and fell.

Let your rifles rest on the muddy floor,
You will not need them any more.

Danger's past;
Now at last,
Go to sleep!"

There is on earth no worthier grave
To hold the bodies of the brave
Than this place of pain and pride
Where they nobly fought and nobly died.

Never fear but in the skies
Saints and angels stand
Smiling with their holy eyes
On the new-come band.

St. Michael's sword darts through the air
And touches the aureole on his hair
And he sees them stand saluting there,

His stalwart sons;
And Patrick, Brigid, Columkill
Rejoice that in veins of warriors still
The Gael's blood runs.

And up to Heaven's doorway floats,
From the wood called Rouge Bouquet,
A delicate cloud of bugle-notes
That softly say:

"Farewell!
Farewell!"

Comrades true, born anew, peace to you!
Your souls shall be where the heroes are
And your memory shine like the morning star.

Brave and dear,
Shield us here.
Farewell!"

H. R. TUCKER, '12, ELECTED PRESIDENT OF N. Y. ALUMNI.

At the regular Monday noon luncheon of the New York City alumni formal organization was completed under the name of the New York Branch of the New Hampshire College Alumni Association. H. R. Tucker, '12, well-known as a booster among the alumni, was chosen as the first president of this branch, and A. S. Burleigh, '17, who was active in getting the men together in New York, was chosen secretary-treasurer. For the present the activities of this branch will be confined to the weekly luncheon, but plans are being formulated to broaden its sphere of action during the winter months. The success of this organization is attested by the presence of new members at each meeting.

Since the meeting of Pi Gamma fraternity was not held last Wednesday, it will be this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. R. DeH. Fisher, Y. M. C. A. secretary here, is attending the International Y. M. C. A. convention at Detroit, Mich., this week.

LIBRARY

United States Government Documents and the New Hampshire College Library

In Washington, D. C., the United States government maintains the largest printing and publishing plant in the world. Several hundred people are constantly employed and tons of printed matter are turned out in the course of a single year, all of which must be authorized by congressional enactment. Included are the proceedings of congress, the reports of the various bureaus and departments, bulletins and miscellaneous publications of general interest. They are written and compiled by government experts and contain material of the highest authority and therefore have an unusual reference value. This is greatly enhanced by the fact that they are well indexed in the Document Catalog which is published biennially and arranged in strictly dictionary fashion. There are also the monthly catalogs supplementing.

These government publications are given to congressmen for free distribution among their supporters and are also sent out by the various departments and offices publishing them. Sets of the publications are deposited by the superintendents of documents office, in a certain number of libraries and institutions known as depositories, of which New Hampshire College Library is one. Individual copies are also for sale by the superintendent of documents office.

The purpose of this brief sketch is to call attention to several of the most useful of the document series which we have in the New Hampshire College Library. They are classified for the most part right in with the regular book collections, except for the recent numbers of the House and Senate documents, the Congressional Record and the Patent Office Gazette which are located in basement stack C. The numbers of the department catalog, which indexes the documents, are to be found in the reference room. Among the government publications of special interest and value should be noted the following:

Farmers' Bulletin

Contains much helpful information on agricultural subjects including the latest developments in the farmers life and work.

Statistical Abstract

A mine of facts particularly to the student of economics—concerning the business, population, commerce, manufactures, education and agriculture of the nation in a very condensed form.

Education Bulletin

The very latest developments in the educational field written and edited by experienced educators.

Public Health Reports

Useful information for the laymen on gaining and retaining health as well as for the prevention of disease.

Also many facts and figures with regard to the general health and welfare of the nation.

National Parks Bulletin

Handbooks with illustrations and text relating to the various national parks of the United States.

(Other public documents will be mentioned in a later article.)

At the regular weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. last Tuesday a fire-light reading was given by Mrs. Naomi Ekdahl. The subject of the reading was an appealing little story called "Everybody's Lonesome."

Mr. College Man:
Durham, N. H.

Dear Mr. Man:—

The right kind of clothes are as important a factor as good health in a man's success. Maybe you think that because I'm a clothing man I'm prejudiced. No—it's because I'm a clothing man that I know this to be true.

Three-fourth of the men you deal with in business don't really know you at all. They can't tell what you really are inside, they judge you by your appearance. And that depends mainly on the clothes you wear. Be honest with yourself—are you perfectly satisfied with your clothes? Do you really think they create the impression you wish?

It is a very important question, this one of right dressing. It can be done without costing you a great deal of money. Indeed I venture to say it can be done for less than you are now spending.

There's something in it—I'd like to show you.

Yours very truly,

FRANK W. HANSON.

FRESHMEN CLOSE SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Take "Tilton Sem" into Camp 12-0—
Game Called Early—Visitors
Show Good Football

The freshman eleven closed their season Saturday, by easily taking Tilton Seminary into camp, 12-0. Owing to the dispute arising in the final moments of the varsity game, the fresh game did not get under way until dark was almost at hand. It was decided to play the first half at all events, and if possible, to continue. However, when the first half had ended it was so dark, that it was impossible to distinguish the players.

1923 SCORES QUICKLY

The freshmen soon scored, after plunging down to the Tilton fifteen-yard mark, when Callahan nabbed a forward deflected by a Tilton back. Campbell missed the goal. It looked as though '23 would score again that period when "Rusty" Lowell skirted the right end for a 20-yard gain, but the period ended, and on the first play in the second period, an incomplete forward in the end zone gave Tilton the ball on her own 20-yard mark.

Tilton punted to midfield, and the fresh team by straight plays, went over for another score, Friborg making the touchdown on an off tackle play from the 12-yard line. Campbell again missed the goal. The Tilton team lacked experience, although they fought hard and showed good football. Bill Shuttleworth, '19, coach of the Seminary team, is very popular.

The summary:

Freshmen	Tilton
Morris, l. e.	r. e., MacPeake
(Friborg)
Campbell, l. t.	r. t., Cushing
Rowe, r. g.	l. g., Eaton
Patrick, c.	c., Bragaw

Friborg, l. h. b.	r. h. b., Mayo

Lowell, r. h. b.	l. h. b., Thomson

Score: Freshmen, 12. Touchdowns: Callahan, Friborg. Referee: Ingalls. Brown. Umpire: Swaffield. Brown. Linesman: Ireland. Tufts. Time: 2 eight minute periods.

ADDITIONAL RULINGS ON REINSTATEMENT.

A series of decisions issued by the Director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury provides more liberal conditions for reinstatement of lapsed or canceled insurance.

The provisions of Treasury Decision No. 47, allowing eighteen months from the date of discharge for reinstatement upon payment of only two months' premiums on the amount of insurance to be reinstated, are retained. That decision is liberalized, however, by a new provision that men out of the service are permitted to reinstate by merely paying the two months' premiums without making a statement as to health at any time within three calendar months following the month of discharge.

After the three months following the date of discharge have elapsed, a statement from the applicant to the effect that he is in an good health as at the date of discharge or at the expiration of the grace period, whichever is the later date, will be required together with a written application for reinstatement and the tender of two months' premiums on the amount of insurance he wishes to reinstate.

In order to give all former service men whose insurance has lapsed or been canceled, a fair chance to reinstate their insurance, including men who have been out of the service eighteen months or more, and who are therefore barred from reinstatement under the former ruling, a special blanket ruling is made which allows all ex-service men to reinstate their insurance before December 31, 1919, provided that each applicant is in as good health as at date of discharge or at expiration of the grace period, whichever is the later date, and so states in his application. Of course it is necessary that he tender the two months' premiums on the amount of insurance he wishes to reinstate.

Service men who reinstated their insurance by payment of all back premiums prior to July 25, 1919, when the decision requiring payment of only two months' premiums went into effect, upon written application to the Bureau may have any premiums paid in excess of two applied toward the payment of future premiums. For example, if after a policy had lapsed for six months, a man reinstated and paid six months' premiums instead of two, he may secure credit for four months' premiums.

The provisions for reinstatement do not protect a man until he actually reinstates. If he waits he may not be in as good health as he was at the time of discharge and consequently may not be able to secure reinstatement.

Don't put off reinstatement. Do it now!

CERCLE FRANCAIS AMENDS CONSTITUTION AT MEETING.

At 7.30 o'clock last Thursday evening, the Cercle Français met in "T." Hall with the president of the organization, Jennie Shannon, '20, in charge.

There was a business meeting at which it was voted to add some important amendments to the constitution, and a policy was decided upon for the coming year. It was voted that this week's meeting should be a social one and plans were made for it.

The subject of discussion for the evening was "Le Sport Tavori" with all conversation carried on in French.

COLLEGE MANDOLIN CLUB HAS LATELY REORGANIZED.

The first meeting of the Mandolin Club was held Monday evening, Nov. 9, at the girls gym. The club was re-organized to allow the men to become members and plans were discussed whereby the club can be made a success. S. J. Alling, '22, was elected manager, and Miss N. J. Dore, '21, was re-elected librarian. It is planned to secure a director at once and a leader will be elected later. All those who can play any stringed instrument are urged to come out, several concerts are planned to be given. The first rehearsal will be held Thursday afternoon from 4.30 to 5.30 in the girls' gym. All out and bring instruments.

NEW HAMPSHIRE HONORED AT COLLEGE CONVENTION.

Representatives of New Hampshire College played an important part last week at the thirty-third annual convention of the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations, which was held in Chicago, Nov. 12 to 14. President R. D. Hetzel of New Hampshire College was selected as secretary of that section of the convention which has to do with the work of the agricultural colleges of the country, while Director J. C. Kendall of the New Hampshire Agricultural Experiment Station was chairman of the experiment station section.

The selection of President Hetzel and Director Kendall for these posts at the convention, which was the event of the year in college administrative circles, is felt to be a high tribute to the work being accomplished at New Hampshire College.

Miss Ida M. Greene of the Home Economics faculty spoke in Milford last Saturday afternoon before the Farm Bureau Committees of Hillsboro County on "Home and Community Work Among Women."

PROF. J. M. WEBBER READS "MACBETH"

Gives Masterly Interpretation of Shakespeare's Famous Play—Recital Under Auspices of Durham Women's Club

A masterly interpretation of "Macbeth" was given on November 14 in the Durham church vestry by Professor James M. Webber, A. M., of Exeter, under the auspices of the Art and Literature department of the Durham Woman's Club.

Professor Webber's reading constituted an entertainment which was at the same time educational in character and absorbing in interest. Many of the audience who heard the reader last summer, under the auspices of the Book and Scroll, found even greater pleasure in his interpretation of "Macbeth," because the abundant action of the latter play enabled the audience to visualize the characters and events with less effort and more vividness.

SELECT SCENES

Professor Webber selected for his reading the following scenes: A "A Blasted Heath;" "Inverness;" "The Same;" "Court of the Castle;" "Forres;" "A Cavern;" "The Same" and the "Field of Battle." The audience appreciated particularly Professor Webber's reading of the "Murder of Duncan," "The Banquet," "The Knocking at the Gate," and "The Sleep Walking of Lady Macbeth." To Mrs. O. V. Henederson and her associates in the Art and Literature department of the Durham Woman's Club are due the thanks of the community for giving it the opportunity to hear an entertainment of the quality which Professor Webber invariably offers in his readings from Shakespeare.

HOLD INFORMAL TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY.

On Monday, November 10, an informal was held in the college gymnasium to celebrate Armistice Day. There was a large number present and the evening passed very pleasantly. As this was a special dance, the girls of the college were allowed to attend both this informal and the informal on Saturday during the week. In the receiving line were Mrs. Elizabeth P. DeMerritt, Professor and Mrs. G. A. Perley, Mrs. Annie Morgan and Colonel and Mrs. T. K. Spencer.

SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY MEETS TONIGHT AT EIGHT O'CLOCK.

The Scientific Meeting Society of the College meets in the Physics Lecture Room at 8 o'clock tonight. Dr. H. L. Slobin and Frankwood E. Williams are the speakers. Dr. Williams is the associate medical director of the National Committee of Mental Hygiene. He is also managing editor of Mental Hygiene. ### NEW YORK ALUMNI ASK FOR GAME NEAR NEW YORK

Protest Dropping of Western New England and New York Trip—Urge Consideration of Schedule Revision—Want to See "Night" Run

The following is a letter from the New York Branch of the alumni and it certainly shows their interest in New Hampshire. They think that a little too much regard to the expense item has been paid in the make-up of the basketball schedule and are keenly disappointed in not being able to see the team play near New York City this year. A letter to Coach Cowell is as follows:

New York, Nov. 14th, 1919.
Mr. W. H. Cowell, Athletic Director,
New Hampshire College,
Durham, New Hampshire.

Dear Mr. Cowell:

The basket ball schedule came in on Monday, and was discussed at the noon luncheon of our Alumni crowd. We first looked for games in this section of the country, but found nothing. The old schedule with Stevens and one or two others near here had put our hopes up, and needless to say, we are keenly disappointed to miss a chance to see the boys play.

There is another reason, though, we feel that even if it should be a bit of a money loser, a trip down here would be good advertising, and in other ways worth while. If necessary we hold ourselves ready to entertain the squad while here, but can't you reconsider the advisability of coming and fix up two or three games for us? Believe us—we will do our share toward making them a success.

How about the Senior Cross Country, are we going to see "Night" and the gang run against what the rest of the country can produce? We would like that, too.

For New Hampshire,
The New York Alumni,
A. S. Burleigh,
Secretary.

Helen Plumer Paulson, '15, writes to the New Hampshire that Carl Paulson, '15, is now foreman in the repair shop of the Boston service department of the Westinghouse Electric and Mfg. Co. Mrs. Paulson says they are enjoying the New Hampshire very much.

Bernice Robb, '19, who has been teaching at Oak Bluffs, Mass., has accepted a position at the Hale House, Boston, where her brother, Waldo Robb, is employed in settlement work. Miss Robb will act as dietitian and instructor in home economics.

L. B. Robinson, formerly assistant agent in Hillsboro County and later club leader, has been elected to take C. A. Smith's place as county agent.

Myrtle Johnson, '17, is working at the Conversion Section of the War Risk Insurance Bureau, Washington, D. C.

Esther Huse, ex-'21, who is living at home this year, was in town last week-end.

Milo Brill, '18, is working at the new Coniston Theatre, Newport, N. H., which opened Nov. 17.

Sarah Greenfield, '19, and Rachael Bryant, ex-'20, were in town last week for the Chi Omega rushing party.

Eldred Sanborn, '16, who is teaching at Williams College, Mass., writes to the New Hampshire: "I am vitally interested in the college activities and am more pleased than I can say at the showing that the boys have been making in athletics. It is making people sit up and take notice. I fully expect N. H. to take first place in the New England Collegiate Cross Country on Saturday and I also expect the football team to beat Maine up properly too. I would give a good deal to see the game."

Lee L. Smalley, '09, Captain U. S. A., discharged, is now back at his former position as assistant superintendent of the Whitcomb Blaisdell Machine Tool Company, 134 Gold Street, Worcester, Mass.

H. E. Clement, '99, is with the American Mining and Exploration Co., Oreana, Nevada.

Albert Adams, ex-'19, was married May 29, 1919, to Miss Laura Westwood of Melrose, Mass. Mr. Adams is now teaching at the New York Institute for the Education of the Blind and finds the work very interesting.

Basil Mitchell, ex-'20-ex-'21, has entered Valparaiso University, Indiana, as a junior, where he is taking the chemical engineering course. N H 10 9Htfar fihqlah .m..9,fg

Katherine Williams, '19, is teaching Home Economics at Reed's Ferry.

"Steve" Boomer, ex-'19, who is still at Fort Sill, was in town last week.

Eleanor Lambert, '17, is teaching at Martha's Vineyard, Mass.

Mary Murphy, '16, was recently appointed chairman of the North County Association of Teachers.

Private Herbert Kendall, 103rd Infantry Regiment (26th Division), who graduated in the class of '15, received the Croix de Guerre with gilt star and citation certificate and transposition of the same awarded him by the French government. "He showed great courage in making his way through the enemy entanglements, thus making it possible for some men to advance behind him toward an enemy machine gun which he succeeded in silencing. He repeated the same maneuver a second time successfully. He was seriously wounded in attempting it a third time."

Freda Reiner, former instructor in Home Economics here, is studying at Columbia University.

THE MEDIUM OF EXCHANGE.

Editorial in The Bates Student

Which applies to New Hampshire as well as any other college. It voices the sentiment of the "New Hampshire."

Though we have thought football, dreamed football, and lived football for the past few weeks, how many have given thought to the band of players who occupied the unenviable place of the scrub team? There is no glory in being walked over and mauled by the hard hitting 'varsity. Little adulation comforts the heart of the scrub player when, tired and worn, brain and muscle weary, he comes in from practice.

The Student speaks for the whole college when it now publicly thanks this squad of men for its tireless efforts in developing the first team. We all hope that soon these scrubs will have a chance to play on the first team and have a share in the glory they so richly deserve.

The Cut System at Bates

As many cuts per semester are to be allowed as there are recitations per week. These cuts are to cover temporary illness, duties toward visiting friends, dental appointments, or such incidental occasions as the student may deem important. An absence on a day preceding or following a vacation shall be counted double. Excuses for absence for work and out of town engagements must be secured in advance. Absences due to prolonged illness will be excused upon the authority of a reputable doctor or the physical director. For each unexcused absence in a course beyond the allowance specified, five points will be deducted from the final rank in the course involved.

Wanted: a "peppy" synonym for the word "pep." We noted that it was used twenty-one times in the last issue of the Orange and Black of Oklahoma A. & M. College. It is being worked to death in nearly all the college papers.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ALUMNI AROUND BOSTON TO ORGANIZE

An enthusiastic gathering of New Hampshire Alumni met at the home of Miss Irene Huse, '18, in Forest Hills on Nov. 15 to discuss and formulate plans for a New Hampshire College Club. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Paulson, '15; Irene Huse, '18; Philip Batchelder, ex-'18; Goldie Basch, '17; Florence Dudley, '16; Harriett Locke, '13; and Cecil C. Dustin, '19. Temporary officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Paulson, president, and Miss Huse, secretary and treasurer. Committees were appointed to work out the details of organization.

A mass meeting of New Hampshire Alumni, who are in and around Boston, is to be held the first week in December, the exact date and place will be announced by circular letter and through the columns of the New Hampshire.

PUNTS AND DROPS.

Maine was well represented with a large gathering of royal rooters.

N. H. _____

Batch got his share of the tackles and with Anderson, stopped Maine continuously.

N. H. _____

Those intercepted forwards in the last of the first half made one's heart go a bit fast.

N. H. _____

Let's hang it on Brown.

N. H. _____

I guess the Hussey "star" didn't twinkle much when he saw "Doc" Bell.

N. H. _____

"Dewey" pulled a little secret service stuff when he tried to listen in on a Maine confab.

N. H. _____

"Dutch" Connor rushed the ball 21 times out of the 64 times the ball was rushed by New Hampshire.

N. H. _____

And of those 64 times, 15 were attempted forwards. So it is easily seen who was the big man for N. H.

N. H. _____

How that Ginsberg did scoot when he got the ball.

N. H. _____

Beverly sure could block kicks.

N. H. _____

As usual Gadbois was on the job all the time.

N. H. _____

McKenney's speed was manifest when he made that first gain for 28 yards.

down. The spirit of the rule would indicate that the kick was "free" to Reardon, as well as to the Maine team. However, present rules do not cover the disputed point of "onside kick."

Coach Cowell says that he did not want the decision given to either team unless it absolutely deserved it. Maine deserves credit for a good, clean, hard fought battle and the whole college here congratulates Maine upon winning the New England college championship.

CROWD IN UPROAR

During the few moments that the officials were discussing the decision the crowd was at a high pitch of excitement—periods of deafening cheering and deathly stillness alternating with the arguments and gestures of the officials. Crowds poured onto the field but no violence occurred.

Connor, New Hampshire's star full back, played a slashing game. Out of 64 rushes made in the game "Dutch" was called on for 21. His line plunging was wonderful and time after time he ripped up the Maine line for gain after gain. "Doc" Bell played a fine game on the line and made many good tackles. McKenney playing left half for New Hampshire also played a fast game. Gadbois at tackle opened many holes in the Maine line. Ginsberg, Maine's flashy quarter, starred for the Orono team. His running back of the punts was the best that has been seen on the Oval this season. Beverley too played a good game. Twice he blocked Connor's drop kicks and his catch of Ginsberg's forward resulted in Maine's score.

The Game: FIRST PERIOD

New Hampshire won the toss, and "Dewey" picked the west goal with the advantage of the wind at his back. Maine kicked off to the N. H. 30-yard line where Butler and Gadbois both attempted to catch the ball; as a result, it was fumbled, but Gad dropped on it and recovered. On the first play McKenney whirled off right tackle for 28 yards, and was downed by three Maine men. Connor made 2½, Butler 3, and then "Dutch" made 5 more for another first down, on Maine's 32-yard mark. New Hampshire was penalized 15, and after an incomplete forward, and a 5-yard loss, Connor punted over the goal line. The visitors brought the ball out to the 20-yard line, but failed to make their distance and gave up the ball on downs on their own 29-yard mark. McKenney and "Dutch" failed to gain, so "Dutch" was called on for a drop and after an unsuccessful forward, Beverley, the opposing left end came charging in, and, jumping high in the air, blocked the drop, and it was recovered by a Maine man on his 24-yard chalk line. New Hampshire was offside and Maine had a first down, but they lost the ball on downs on their own 47-yard line. Connor made 3 and Butler 2, and then Ginsberg intercepted a forward. The Orono team made 4 yards in three rushes, and then punted to the N. H. 35-yard mark. Connor returned the punt, and with interest, for his kick soared to the Maine 10-yard line. Ginsberg ran it back to his 19-yard mark. Batchelder broke through, and smeared the next play for a five-yard loss, and Maine punted to their 43-yard line. McKenney made 7 in two rushes, Davis was stopped, and "Dutch" went through for 5, and first down. Maine tightened up and held, so Connor once more dropped back to try for a field goal. Beverley again came through, and blocked the kick; this time, he almost landed on Connor's foot. "Dutch" recovered, and Butler went around left end for 6 yards and the period ended.

SECOND PERIOD

New Hampshire lost the ball on downs, and Maine punted out of danger to the New Hampshire 10-yard mark; Butler shook off a Maine tackler and raced along the sidelines to the 30-yard mark before he was forced offside. The Blue and White men failed to gain, and Connor punted to the Maine 40-yard line. Ginsberg again showed his ability by running the kick back to the N. H. 36-yard mark. Maine was penalized 15 and lost the ball on downs after an incomplete forward, and two short gains. McKenney made 2 through the line, and "Dutch" went around left end for first down. Anderson lost 2 on an end around play, and Butler was also thrown for a loss. Connor then kicked to the Maine 20-yard mark. Ginsberg ran it back 13 yards, but Maine was penalized 15 on the next play for holding, and the visitors punted to midfield. A forward from "Dutch" to "Andy" netted 17 yards and a first down on the Maine 27-yard mark. Butler made 6, and Connor went through for first down on the 8-yard mark. McKenney failed to gain, and on the next play, Butler fumbled, a Maine man recovering, and New Hampshire lost their first chance to score. Maine punted to midfield, and McKenney ran it to the 40-yard line. "Dutch" went off left tackle for 22 yards and first down. McKenney made 5, but Davis and Butler failed to gain, and "Dutch" dropped back to the 23-yard mark to try for a field goal. However, the ball went low, and a little wild, and Maine put the ball in play on her 20-yard line. "Dewey" Graham smeared the first play for a 3-yard loss, but Smith ripped through for a first down. Stewart, Maine's fleet-footed captain, skirted left end for 27 yards, but had to be taken out of the game after that play, because of an injury. Butler, Ginsberg and Connor intercepted three long forwards in rapid succession, and the half ended in a scoreless tie.

THIRD PERIOD

New Hampshire kicked off to Maine's 18-yard line, and Ginsberg ran it to his own 30. On the first play, Harvell recovered a Maine fumble, paving the way for the first score. McKenney and Connor each took the ball twice for first down. Another followed quickly, but Maine stiffened up and held on their own 10-yard line. "Dutch" dropped back, and placed a drop squarely between the bars, putting New Hampshire in the lead. Ginsberg was dropped in his tracks on the kickoff, but made 5 on the first play. Gadbois knocked off the interference of the next play, and Davis dropped the Maine half back for a 6-yard loss. The visitors punted to the N. H. 30-yard line, and Butler ran it back to his own 43. Another exchange of kicks, and it was New Hampshire's ball at midfield McKenney made 6 in two rushes, and Connor ripped through for 8 and a first down. Another first down came after gains by McKenney and "Dutch," then "Dutch" tried another drop from the 35-yard line. Maine brought the ball out to the 20-yard line and punted at once to their own 35. Butler heaved a pretty forward to "Dutch," and the latter almost got away, but Ginsberg spilled him on the the 10-yard line. McKenney made 3, Connor 2, and "Dutch" fumbled on the next play, a Maine man recovering and the period ended. New Hampshire's second chance to cross the line was lost.

FOURTH PERIOD

Maine punted to their own 34-yard mark, and New Hampshire failed to make their distance, losing the ball on downs. "Dutch" and "Doc" Bell stopped the next two plays without gain, and Maine punted to the New Hampshire 43-yard line. Connor punted, the ball going outside at the Maine 39-yard line. Maine started down the field, and by trick plays and a forward pass for 11 yards, made three first downs in rapid succession. The Blue and White defense stiffened on their own 24-yard line, and held Maine twice without a gain, and Mc-

Kenney intercepted a forward on the 10-yard line. "Dutch" punted at once, and, tired by the long game was only able to get off a short punt to the 35-yard line. Ginsberg once more ran through a broken field, and was not downed until he reached the 20-yard mark. Maine failed to gain in the next two plays and then Ginsberg dropped back, and threw a long forward to Beverley who went over for the touchdown. Neavling kicked the goal. Litchfield replaced Davis, and Reardon went in for Butler. On the kickoff, Reardon ran it back 11 yards to the 28-yard line. New Hampshire started open play at once, and McKenney got a forward that netted 11 yards. The next play was an incomplete forward pass that looked very much like interference, as Anderson was forced to be taken out after the play. Lundholm replaced him and soon showed his usefulness by recovering a Maine fumble after the visitors had intercepted a forward.

After another incomplete forward, Reardon skirted the left end for 15 yards and first down on the Maine 40-yard line. Another incomplete forward and with less than a minute to play, New Hampshire pulled the onside kick. The ball left "Dutch" Connor's boot barely missing the heads of his own backfield men and rolled end over end to the goal line. Reardon came racing down the field, the only New Hampshire player entitled to touch the ball and fell on the pigskin as it crossed the goal for a supposed touchdown. The time had ended with the ball in the air and both teams left the field each believing the victory to be theirs. Referee Ingalls after much arguing reserved his decision and the final result was unknown until yesterday when Maine was declared the winner.
